

Update from the Centralized Bargaining Team

Today, presidents from the centralized bargaining team, CUPE Locals 1190, 1251, 1252, 1253, 1418, 1840, 1866, 2745, 5017 and 5026, met to consider the current rise in COVID-19 cases, the new public health restrictions, and the state of our essential public services. We want to give the members notice that the spokesperson of the CUPE centralized bargaining team, President of CUPE NB Stephen Drost, will be providing an update on the current labour dispute to CBC tomorrow morning. Tune in to Information Morning (CBC Fredericton – 99.9FM or online) between 7am and 8am to hear the details.

Tomorrow morning, a membership memo with the content of the update to the media will be released.

In solidarity,

The CUPE Centralized Bargaining Team
